

Commercial Property

Heckford Norton's Commercial Property Service is one of our key service offerings and many clients, both landlords and tenants, take advantage of our considerable expertise in this area.

Running a business can be stressful enough, and complex issues relating to your offices or other premises can be an unwelcome interruption to your key commercial objectives.

Our Commercial team regularly deal with issues relating to commercial premises, including:

- 1 New leases
- 2 Lease renewals and extensions
- 3 Rent reviews
- 4 Licences to assign
- 5 Licences for alterations
- 6 Landlord & Tenant Act requirements and notices
- 7 Purchases and sales of commercial property
- 8 Property Development – including options, conditional contracts, overage and development projects

We act for many businesses, both large and small (including SMEs) and are experienced in handling complex and substantial transactions.

Heckford Norton will be able to offer you sound advice on all legal aspects of your business and can become a key member of your team for day-to-day business issues. By requesting advice from our commercial property team at the right time we can help you protect and grow your business.

See also our brochures on our Company Commercial Law Service and Employment Law Service

HECKFORDNORTON.CO.UK